

Sean J. Roberts
611 South Bumby Avenue
Orlando, FL 32803
1-(321) 427-8190

July 31, 2006

RE: T & T House Moving and Heavy Rigging, LLC

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter to be used by T & T House Moving and Heavy Rigging, LLC ("T&T") as an ongoing letter of my highest recommendation.

Earlier this year, I had the pleasure of hiring T&T to move one of Brevard County's oldest and most historic structures known as the Le Parc building in downtown Cocoa Village. The Le Parc building is a 3 story (36' tall) structure built in 1888. Due to the age of the building and its very poor physical condition, I was probably one of the most nervous customers that T&T had in some time. Adding to the stress caused by the weak physical condition of the building was numerous physical barriers to the move (trees, curbs, telephone, electric, cable and signs).

To get the building to the new location, T&T was required to spin the building around on its original lot, then immediately jump a 4 foot high retaining wall into a parking lot, then jump a teller line at a bank drive-through, bridge across a retention swale, make several turns through the downtown streets where there was only inches to spare, cut across a vacant lot, jump several curbs to traverse the Post Office parking lot, and finally cross an arterial roadway onto the new lot. The move was a local spectacle drawing dozens of people who followed the building along the route. T&T executed the move flawlessly. I regularly have people stop at the building and comment about how impressed they were with how T&T handled the entire building move.

In addition to the great job T&T did handling the building move, the principals of T&T (Timmy and Cindy LaRue) were extremely pleasant to do business with. Cindy and Timmy were very responsive to all my calls regarding the schedule and work to be completed. For all the reasons listed above (and more), its without hesitation that I offer my recommendation for their services.

If you have any questions regarding my experience with T&T, please feel free to contact me anytime at 321-427-8190.

Sincerely,

Sean Roberts